I will end with saying the importance of family and the importance of all us recognizing is that everybody's dollar is green and we all bleed red. It is so important for us to all work together because we all understand the importance of successful cities. We don't work in a vacuum. It is about bringing people together. We're so much stronger united.

I have a special point of privilege also to congratulate Mayor Lee. I can't tell you how honored I am to be able to be in the same room at the same time doing this. But the last thing I'm going to say, not humbly thank you, but did you all know that Senator Leticia Van de Putte is running for lieutenant governor for the State of Texas. God bless you all.
